

Bethania-Black Walnut Bottom
(Joint Activity with Forsyth Audubon Society)
November 11, 2017

Submitted by Shelley Rutkin

The trip to Bethania-Black Walnut Bottom covered approximately one mile over a two-hour time period. Twenty-two participants spotted 33 species of birds, including 110 Cedar Waxwings and a Winter Wren.

Bird List

Canada Goose 5	Carolina Wren 5
Black Vulture 2	Golden-crowned Kinglet 4
Turkey Vulture 8	Eastern Bluebird 4
Cooper's Hawk 2	American Robin 40
Red-shouldered Hawk 3	European Starling 2
Mourning Dove 1	Cedar Waxwing 110
Red-bellied Woodpecker 1	Chipping Sparrow 2
Downy Woodpecker 2	Field Sparrow 5
Northern Flicker (Yellow-shafted) 1	Dark-eyed Junco (Slate-colored) 5
Blue Jay 2	White-throated Sparrow 75
American Crow 5	Song Sparrow 10
Common Raven 1	Eastern Towhee 3
Carolina Chickadee 2	Northern Cardinal 4
Tufted Titmouse 5	Red-winged Blackbird 15
White-breasted Nuthatch (Eastern) 2	Common Grackle 5
Brown Creeper 1	American Goldfinch 2
Winter Wren 1	