

Fall Picnic September 16, 2017

Submitted by Stella Wear, Social Committee Chair

Thirty-four PBC members and their guests gathered at the Greensboro Children's Museum on September 16 for a picnic and activities to kick off the year for the Piedmont Bird Club. The Children's Museum Edible Schoolyard made an interesting space for walking and exploring before game time. Activity time was filled with several bird-related games. The first game brought out acting abilities of some, with Emily Tyler winning for her imitation of the sound and character of a Sandhill Crane. The second game, a bird trivia challenge, was in team format that led us to share many interesting and no so well-known bird facts. After all the playing, everyone enjoyed an amazing pot luck dinner and voted on their favorite dish, which is hard to do with so many great cooks. This "Favorite Dish Competition" was won by Howard Millican, Craig and Jane Lawrence, and Stephanie Cashwell, who were awarded handmade Julien McCarthy bowls. After dinner, those interested went to the Carolina Theatre to view the Chimney Swifts.

Thanks to Social Committee members Lynn Burnette, Becky Floyd, Julien McCarthy, Lyn McCoy, Phyllis Thomas, and Stella Wear.

Photo Credit: Julien McCarthy